NCSA Service Updates

NationalCSA.com

National Customer Service Association

Your partner in attaining and retaining your competitive advantage through customer service excellence.

Membership Promotion

October 5 - 11 is National Customer Service week.

Strengthen your commitment to your customers by becoming a member of NCSA today. During the months of September and October 2014, both you and a colleague or co-worker can become members of the NCSA for the price of a single membership. As a member you and your organization will benefit from the many valuable tools for employee training and education, marketing, and customer relations. A separate application must be completed by each person and will be processed by NCSA when both applications are completed.

To receive the two-for-one deal enter the special code below in the "NCSA use box" on the bottom of the Membership Application online form. Please note that each member fee is $47.50. (Cannot be combined with other discounts.)

~ Special Code: 241-"colleague/coworker's last name"

~ Example: 241-Smith
